Ordinance No. 10

Pala Peace and Security

Section 1 Title

This Ordinance shall be known as the Pala Peace and Security Ordinance.

Section 2 Policy

The peace and security of all residents of the Pala Reservation (“Reservation”), both Tribal Member and Non-Member (“Reservation Community”), shall be preserved and protected by the Pala Band of Mission Indians (“Pala Band”).

It is the policy of the Pala Band that the Reservation Community is entitled to the peaceful and tranquil pursuit of their lifestyles. It is further the policy of the Pala Band that the Reservation Community is entitled to security against harassment, vandalism, disturbing the peace, and other antisocial acts, both in public and private.

Section 3 Jurisdiction

- A. Boundaries. This Ordinance shall be applicable to all persons and lands within the exterior boundaries of the Reservation.
- B. Tribal Court. Pala Tribal Court (“Tribal Court”) shall have jurisdiction over all civil violations under this Ordinance.

Section 4 Band Regulation

The General Council of the Pala Band shall promulgate such regulations as it deems proper and necessary to carry out the policies of the Pala Band with respect to preserving and maintaining the peace and security of the Reservation Community. Such regulations may supersede and supplement any existing ordinances and include any provisions which the Pala Band deems necessary to carry out the policies and procedures of this Ordinance.

Section 5 Definitions

For purposes of this Ordinance, the following terms shall be defined as follows:

- A. Abatement Notice shall mean the notice warning a person of a potential civil citation and fine for failure to maintain property or structures in a manner that does not endanger the health and safety of person dwelling thereon or of the Reservation Community.

5. Penalties:
- a. Violation of this Section I is subject to the following;
 - 1. Imprisonment for up to one year (365 days);
 - 2. Five-thousand ($5,000) fine;
 - 3. Any other penalty deemed appropriate by the Tribal Court including, but not limited to: probation, up to five (5) years in duration; loss of firearm privileges; substance abuse treatment; no contract orders; loss of business license; payment to a child advocacy center; victim restitution; traditional restitution; loss of hunting and fishing privileges; diversion of per capita payments, in accordance with Tribal law; and, sex offender registry.
 - b. In the event an individual charged with a violation of this Section I is convicted of a violation of this Section, the Tribal Court may order an assessment of the offender by a probation officer or other qualified service provider to ascertain an appropriate treatment plan for the offender, and shall make such an order when the victim is a minor.
 - c. Upon the recommendation by the probation officer or other qualified assessment personnel, the Tribal Court may order treatment, including but not limited to, substance abuse counseling, mental health, parenting, anger management, sexual offender treatment, or job training and make this order part of the offender’s probation or release. Failure to complete the term(s) of probation or release shall constitute probation or release violation and may subject the offender to incarceration or other sanctions.
 - d. Upon conviction of an offender who has been found to have violated this Section I, the Tribal Court may order an assessment of the victim by a qualified service provider. The victim may choose to accept or deny the evaluation. Upon recommendations by a qualified service provider, the Tribal Court may provide for treatment including, but not limited to, substance abuse counseling, mental health counseling, parenting classes and counseling, anger management, or job training for the victim and/or members of the victim’s family, as appropriate. All expenses incurred will be assessed as victim’s restitution and will be the responsibility of the offender.

- J. Aiding and Abetting. Whenever any act or omission is made unlawful under this Ordinance it shall include causing, allowing, permitting, aiding, abetting, suffering, or concealing the fact of such act or omission.
- K. Successive Violations. Each person is guilty of a separate violation for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of any provision of this Ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted by such person.

Section 7 Enforcement

It shall be the duty of every Tribal Officer to enforce this Ordinance and all supplemental rules and regulations governing law and order on the Reservation adopted by the General Council.

Section 8 Civil Citation

Whenever a Tribal Officer determines that a violation of this Ordinance has occurred, the Tribal Officer shall issue a Civil Citation to any person responsible for the violation(s).

Each Civil Citation shall contain the following information:

1. The date of the violation;
2. The address or a definite description of the location where the violation occurred;
3. The section(s) of this Ordinance violated and a brief description of the acts or omissions constituting the violation;
4. The amount of the penalty for the violation;
5. A description of the penalty payment process, including a description of the time within which and place to which the penalty shall be paid;
6. A description of the Civil Citation review process, including the time within which the Civil Citation may be contested; and
7. The name and signature of the citing Tribal Officer.

Section 9 Other Penalties

- A. Referral to other Jurisdiction. Notwithstanding any tribal penalties provided for under this Ordinance, all persons found in violation of any federal and/or state law while within the Reservation may be referred to federal, state, or county law enforcement officials for prosecution.
- B. Exclusion of Individual. Use of remedies and procedures of this Ordinance shall not limit or preclude the use of other civil or criminal legal remedies by the Pala Band or any other person, including but not limited to Exclusion from the Reservation.

Section 10 Service

- A. Service of Citation. Service of the Civil Citation may be accomplished by;
1. Personal service on the person alleged to have committed the violation; or
 2. Mailing the civil citation by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the person alleged to have committed the violation at his/her mailing address if known, or such other place which is believed to give the occupant or owner actual notice of the Civil Citation by a Tribal Officer.
- B. Effective Date of Service. Service is deemed effective on the date of personal service or when the certified mail is delivered. If the certified mail receipt is returned unsigned, then service shall be deemed effective on the date three days following deposit in the mail.
- C. Validity of Proceedings. Where service of any notice required under this Ordinance is affected in compliance with this Section and with due process the asserted failure of any person to receive the notice shall not affect the validity of any proceedings taken under this Ordinance.

Section 11 Finality and Payment of Civil Penalties

- A. Finality. The Civil Citation becomes final when thirty (30) calendar days have elapsed from the date of service of the Civil Citation if a request for hearing has not been properly filed or, if a request for hearing has been properly filed, from the date of service upon the Defendant of the Tribal Court decision upholding the Civil Citation.
- B. Payment of Civil Fines. Civil Penalties must be paid within ten (10) calendar days of the date on which they become final or by such other date as specified in an order of the Tribal Court, shall be paid by cash, money order, or cashier's check, and made payable to the "Pala Band of Mission Indians."

Section 12 Hearings

- A. Request for Hearings. A Defendant may contest that there was a violation of this Ordinance or that the Defendant is responsible for the violation by filing a Request for Hearing with the Tribal Court within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of service of the Civil Citation.
- B. Request for Hearing Form. A Request for Hearing shall be incorporated in the Civil Citation.
- C. Scheduling of Hearings. The Tribal Court shall schedule a hearing within sixty (60) days from the date the Request for Hearing is filed and provide the Notice of Hearing and Request for Hearing to the Defendant, Tribal Law Enforcement, and the Executive Committee at least fourteen (14) days prior to the date of the hearing.

- D. Additional Evidence. If the Tribal Officer submits an additional written report concerning the Civil Citation to the Tribal Judge for consideration at the hearing, then a copy of this report also shall be served on the Defendant at least five (5) days prior to the date of the hearing.
- E. Request for Continuance. The Defendant or the Tribal Officer may request one (1) continuance for any reason, provided that Tribal Court is given the Request for Continuance at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the scheduled hearing and that the continued hearing shall not be continued more than ninety (90) days after the hearing request was filed. A Request for Continuance made less than forty-eight (48) hours before the scheduled hearing may be granted by the Tribal Judge based upon exigent circumstances only.
- F. Hearings. All hearings shall be closed to the public. Only Parties and their attorneys, and those persons who have a direct interest in the case or whose presence is necessary and/or helpful to the proceedings, as determined by the court, may be present at the hearing
- G. Evidence and Witnesses. The Defendant shall be given the opportunity to testify, to present evidence, and cross-examine witnesses concerning the Civil Citation. The Defendant may appear personally or through an attorney. Prehearing discovery is not authorized, but subpoena of witnesses and documents shall be permitted as authorized by law or the Tribal Court's Rules of Court. The Tribal Judge is authorized to conduct the hearing informally, both as to rules of procedure and admission of evidence, in any manner which will provide a fair hearing.
- H. Default Judgment. The failure of a Defendant to appear at the hearing or, in the alternative, to present written or demonstrative evidence at the hearing shall constitute an admission by default of the violation by the Defendant and acceptance that the amount of the Civil Penalty is appropriate. The Tribal Judge shall issue an Order for Default Judgment.
- I. Presumptive Evidence. The Civil Citation and any additional report submitted by the Tribal Officer shall constitute presumptive evidence of the respective facts contained in those documents.
- J. Continuance for Additional Information. The Tribal Judge may continue the hearing and request additional information from the Tribal Officer or the Defendant of the Civil Citation prior to issuing a written decision.

Section 13 Tribal Court Decision

- A. Notice of Decision. After considering all the testimony and evidence submitted at the hearing, the Tribal Judge shall issue a Notice of Entry of Judgment or Notice of Entry of Dismissal of the Civil Citation(s). The Notice of Entry of Judgment or Notice of Entry of Dismissal of the Tribal Court shall be issued within thirty (30) calendar days following completion of the hearing.

- B. Tribal Court Remedies. If the Tribal Judge determines that the Civil Citation should be upheld, he/she may, in his/her discretion, apply any of the following remedies singularly or in combination:
1. Injunctions. Issue an injunction ordering the Defendant to temporarily or permanently refrain from conducting the acts or actions that gave rise to the Civil Citation.
 2. Amount of Civil Penalties. Impose Civil Penalties in an amount not to exceed those identified in this Ordinance. In determining the amount of the Civil Penalties, the Tribal Judge may take into account any or all of the following factors:
 - a. the duration of the violation;
 - b. the frequency, recurrence, and number of violations, related or unrelated, by the same violator;
 - c. the seriousness of the violation;
 - d. the economic impact of the violation on the Reservation Community; and
 - e. such other factors as justice may require.
 3. Suspension of Civil Penalties. Suspend the Civil Penalties on the condition the Defendant does not commit any other violations of this Ordinance and complies with all Tribal Court orders relating to the violation during a specified period not to exceed one (1) year.
 4. Community Service. Order community service in addition to or in lieu of a Civil Penalties.
 5. Other Orders. Issue such other order as may be authorized under the Pala Band's Ordinance Establishing a Tribal Court.
- C. Court Costs. If the Tribal Judge finds that a request for hearing is completely without merit, he/she may hold the Defendant liable for, and order Defendant to pay, the Pala Band the reasonable costs, including attorney's fees, associated with defending Defendant's request for hearing. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to the Pala Band, this paragraph may be enforced against the Defendant in the Tribal Court.
- D. Payment Schedule. If the Tribal Judge determines the Civil Citation should be upheld, he/she shall set forth in the Notice of Entry of Judgment, the payment schedule for the Civil Penalties as well as for payment of any administrative costs assessed under § 14.C. above. Late payment charges shall accrue and be payable in the amount and by the terms specified in the Schedule of Civil Penalties.
- E. Order for Dismissal. If the Tribal Judge determines the Civil Citation should not be upheld, he/she shall issue Order for Dismissal.
- F. Service of Notice. The Defendant, Tribal Officer, and Executive Committee shall be served with the Notice of Entry of Judgment within seven (7) calendar days of its issuance.

- G. Finality. The decision of the Tribal Judge shall be final upon service on the Defendant and not subject to further appeal.
- H. Severance of Civil Penalties. The employment, performance evaluation, compensation, and benefits of the Tribal Judge shall not be directly or indirectly conditioned upon the amount of Civil Penalties upheld or dismissed by the Tribal Judge.

Section 14 Collection

- A. Collection of Civil Penalties. The Pala Band may collect the assessed Civil Penalties and administrative costs by use of all available legal means.
- B. Garnishment. The Executive Committee shall have the authority to garnish a Tribal Member's per capita distribution monies, in accordance with the Pala Gaming Allocation Plan, or a Tribal Employee's wages in the amount of the final Civil Penalties and associated costs if the Tribal Member or Tribal Employee, or his/her child under the age of eighteen (18), fails to pay a Civil Penalty imposed on his/her by the date prescribed by this Section. The garnishment shall be subject to a maximum of 25% of the amount of the per capita distribution or wages from which the penalty is being garnished, and such garnishments may continue at this maximum rate for subsequent per capita distributions and garnishments until the penalty is fully satisfied.

Section 15 Publication

A copy of this Ordinance shall be kept available for inspection at the Admin Building. A copy of this Ordinance may be provided to Tribal Members, upon request and in accordance with Tribal law. Non-members who are recipients of Civil Citations issued under this Ordinance may be permitted to review those portions of this Ordinance relating to the Civil Citation, including notice and appeal rights, at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Section 16 Severability

If any provision of this Ordinance shall in the future be declared invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalid provision or provisions shall be severed and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

Section 17 Sovereign Immunity

As agents of the Pala Band's government, Tribal Officers, and Tribal Judges acting pursuant to this Ordinance shall enjoy the full benefits of the Tribe's sovereign immunity, and any and all attributes of sovereignty enjoyed by the Pala Band's government. Such officers and Judges shall have no authority to waive the Pala Band's sovereign immunity.

Section 18 Indemnification

The General Council shall indemnify any Tribal Officer against expenses actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal, in which that individual is made a party by reason of being or having been such an officer, except in relation to matters as to which the officer shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct in the performance of duty to the Pala Band.

Section 19 Effective Date and Amendments

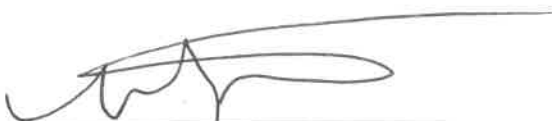

- A. Effective Date. This Ordinance 6 – Peace and Security shall become effective on the day it is approved by the General Council of the Pala Band at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present.
- B. Clerical Revisions. Any clerical, administrative, and non-substantive amendments may be approved by the Executive Committee.
- C. Amendment of Ordinance. This Ordinance 6 – Peace and Security may be amended by a majority vote of those members present at a duly called General Council meeting at which a quorum is present.
